This is a fund constituted in the form of a unit trust established under Hong Kong law and is a sub-fund of the ChinaAMC Global ETF Series II. The Units of the ChinaAMC Hong Kong Banks ETF (the “Sub-Fund”) are listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “SEHK”). These Units are traded on the SEHK like listed stocks. The fund is a passively managed index tracking exchange traded fund falling under Chapter 8.6 of the Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds.

Objective and Investment Strategy

Objective

The Sub-Fund aims to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, closely correspond to the performance of the NASDAQ Hong Kong Banks™ Index (the “Index”).

Strategy

The Manager intends to adopt primarily a full replication strategy to achieve the investment objective of the Sub-Fund. The Manager may however, in the appropriate circumstances, choose to use a representative sampling strategy.

When the Sub-Fund adopts the replication strategy, it will invest in substantially all the Index securities constituting the Index in substantially the same weightings (i.e. proportions) as these Index securities have in the Index.

When the Sub-Fund adopts the representative sampling strategy, it will invest, either directly or indirectly, in securities comprised in the Index, or in securities that are not included in its Index, but which the Manager believes will help the Sub-Fund achieve its investment objective.

Investors should note that the Manager may switch between the full replication and representative sampling strategies without notice to investors and in its absolute discretion.

The Sub-Fund currently does not intend to:

- (a) engage in securities lending transactions, sale and repurchase transactions or reverse repurchase transactions; or
- (b) invest in any financial derivative instruments for hedging or non-hedging purposes (i.e. the Sub-Fund will not use derivatives for any purposes).

Where the Sub-Fund does engage in securities financing transactions and/or invest in financial derivative instruments, prior approval shall be obtained from the SFC (if so required) and no less than 1 month’s prior notice (or such other notice period as required by the Code) will be given to the Unitholders.

The investment strategy of the Sub-Fund is subject to the investment and borrowing restrictions set out in the Prospectus.

The Manager has appointed Mackenzie Financial Corporation as investment delegate of the Sub-Fund, whereby the Investment Delegate exercises investment discretion in respect of the investments of the Sub-Fund and is responsible for the selection and ongoing monitoring of the Sub-Fund’s investments pursuant to the above investment objective and strategy, subject to the oversight of the Manager.

Index

The Index is a float adjusted modified market capitalisation weighted index which measures the performance of securities that are listed on the SEHK and classified as Banks by the Industry Classification Benchmark.

To be eligible for inclusion in the Index, a security must meet the following additional criteria:

- (a) it must have a minimum float adjusted market capitalisation of USD500 million;
- (b) it must have a minimum three-month average daily dollar trading value of USD3 million;
- (c) it may not have entered into a definitive agreement or other arrangement which would likely result in the security no longer being Index eligible; and
- (d) it may not be issued by an issuer currently in bankruptcy proceedings.

The Index was launched on 21 July 2014 and had a base level of 1,000.

To be eligible for continued inclusion in the Index, a security must meet the following criteria:

- (a) it must have a minimum float adjusted market capitalisation of USD300 million; and
- (b) it must have a minimum three-month average daily dollar trading value of USD1 million.

At each quarter, the Index is rebalanced such that the maximum weight of the largest group entity and the second largest group entity does not exceed 33% and 18% respectively, and the maximum weight of the top 5 securities and any Index security does not exceed 70% and 18% respectively.

The Index is a total return net index. A total return net index calculates the performance of the index constituents on the basis that any dividends or distributions are reinvested after the deduction of any taxes that may apply.

As at 9 August 2023, the Index had a total market capitalisation of HKD 7.54 trillion and 17 constituents.

The Index is denominated in HKD.

The Manager (and each of its Connected Persons) is independent of The NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc., the Index Provider.

You can obtain the most updated list of the constituents of the Index together with their respective weightings and additional information of the Index including the index methodology and the closing level of the Index from the website of The NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc. at <https://www.nasdaq.com/solutions/nasdaq-global-index-policies>. This website has not been reviewed by the SFC. Please refer to the Manager's website for the latest hyperlink for the Index.

Use of derivatives / investment in derivatives

The Sub-Fund will not use derivatives for any purposes.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Prospectus for details including the risk factors.

Risks Associated with the Banking Sector

- The prices of shares of many financial service companies including banks have shown to be more closely related to changes in interest rate as compared to prices of shares of companies in other sectors. In general, the stock prices of financial service companies are more sensitive to the movement of interest rates. All things being equal, when interest rates rise, stock prices of financial service companies will have a tendency to decrease, and vice versa.

Concentration Risk

- The Sub-Fund is subject to concentration risk as a result of tracking the performance of a single geographical region (Hong Kong) and sector (banking). It is likely to be more volatile than a broad-based fund, such as a global or regional equity fund, as it is more susceptible to fluctuations in value resulting from adverse conditions in Hong Kong and the banking sector.

Management Risk

- Because there can be no guarantee that the Sub-Fund's performance is identical to that of the Index, it is subject to management risk. This is the risk that the Manager's and the Investment Delegate's strategy, the implementation of which is subject to a number of constraints, may not produce the intended results. In addition, the Manager and the Investment Delegate (as a delegate of the Manager) have absolute discretion to exercise Unitholders' rights with respect to securities comprising the Sub-Fund. There can be no guarantee that the exercise of such discretion will result in the investment objective of the Sub-Fund being achieved.

Reliance on the Investment Delegate Risk

- The Manager has delegated the exercise of investment discretion for the Sub-Fund to the Investment Delegate. Unitholders must rely on the Investment Delegate in implementing the investment strategies and the performance of the Sub-Fund is largely dependent on the services and skills of its officers and employees. In the case of loss of service of the Investment Delegate or any of its key personnel, as well as any significant interruption of the Investment Delegate's business operations or in the extreme case of the insolvency of the Investment Delegate, the trustee may not find successor managers/investment delegates with the requisite skills, qualifications and the new appointment may not be on equivalent terms or of similar quality. The occurrence of any of these events may have an adverse impact on the Sub-Fund's performance and thus the value of your investment.

Tracking Error Risk

- The Sub-Fund may use representative sampling strategy. It is therefore possible that the Sub-Fund may be subject to a greater risk of tracking error, which is the risk that its performance may not track that of the Index accurately. Other factors such as fees and expenses, and inability to rebalance the Sub-Fund's holdings in response to changes to the Index may also cause tracking error. There can be no assurance of exact or identical replication at any time of the performance of the Index.

Investment risk

- The Sub-Fund is an investment fund. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal. Therefore your investment in the Sub-Fund may suffer losses.

Passive Investment Risk

- The Sub-Fund is not actively managed and will not adopt any temporary defensive position against any market downturn. Therefore when there is a decline in the Index, the Sub-Fund will also decrease in value. Investors may suffer significant losses accordingly.

Trading Risk

- Generally, retail investors can only buy or sell Units on the SEHK. The trading price of the Units on the SEHK is subject to market forces and may trade at a substantial premium or discount to the net asset value per Unit.
- As investors will pay certain charges (e.g. trading fees and brokerage fees) to buy or sell Units on the SEHK, investors may pay more than the net asset value per Unit when buying Units on the SEHK, and may receive less than the net asset value per Unit when selling Units on the SEHK.

Reliance on Market Makers Risk

- Although the Manager ensures that at least one market maker will maintain a market for the Units of the Sub-Fund, it should be noted that liquidity in the market for the Units may be adversely affected if there is no market maker for the Units of the Sub-Fund. The Manager will seek to mitigate this risk by ensuring at least one market maker for the Units of the Sub-Fund gives not less than 3 months' notice prior to terminating market making. It is possible that there is only one SEHK market maker to the Sub-Fund or the Manager may not be able to engage a substitute market maker within the termination notice period of a market maker, and there is also no guarantee that any market making activity will be effective.

Early Termination Risk

- The Sub-Fund may be terminated early under certain circumstances, for example, where the Index is no longer available for benchmarking or if the aggregate net asset value of all the Units of the Sub-Fund is less than HKD100 million. Investors should refer to "Termination" in the Prospectus for further details. Investors may suffer a loss when the Sub-Fund is terminated.

How has the fund performed?

Note: Since 28 May 2021, the Manager of the Fund changed from BMO Global Asset Management (Asia) Limited to China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Limited and the investment management function of the Fund has been delegated to Mackenzie Financial Corporation. The performance of the Fund prior to 2021 was achieved under circumstances that no longer apply.

- Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.
- The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-to-NAV, with dividends reinvested.
- These figures show by how much the Sub-Fund increased or decreased in value during the calendar year shown. Performance data is calculated in HKD including ongoing charges and excluding expenses payable by investors on the SEHK.
- Where no past performance is shown there was insufficient data available in that year to provide performance.
- Underlying Index: NASDAQ Hong Kong Banks™ Index
- Sub-Fund launch date: 13 November 2014

Is there any guarantee?

The Sub-Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.
